- Are you facing retirement and wondering what's next?
- Are traditional career paths or ways of working not working for you?
- Are you feeling called to be of service, to 'give back' to others but not sure how or what?
 - Are you facing shifts in relationships and want support?

The Examined Life Project is a unique program, consisting of private leadership coaching, peer group support, wellness assessment, and a day-long retreat focused on defining your vocation and life purpose, to support you in the 'inner work' of life transitions and to align your deepest values with your authentic service in the world.

Cost: $995.00 per person includes two, 60-minute leadership coaching sessions, all materials, full-day retreat with gourmet breakfast and lunch, peer support, and wellness assessment.
