Reunite body, mind, and spirit through transformational and sacred travel, and connect with fellow seekers while walking the famed pilgrimage trail of El Camino de Santiago, Spain, September 16-25, 2016.

Great reasons this pilgrimage is ideal for you:

- Spacious time to listen to your own inner wisdom and the courage to act with integrity
- Deepen your discernment about life transitions and life direction and walk inspired by the beauty of northern Spain's hidden gem, the stunning Galician coast
- Connect with a small community of like-minded seekers; the pilgrimage is limited to 15 persons

More about this walking pilgrimage

This 70-mile walk is at a snail's pace and is with the support of a fully loaded van when you want it, giving you time to soak in this ancient and compelling landscape dotted with quiet, charming villages, forests and coastal views, and the ease of carrying a light daypack. As an added bonus, upon reaching Finisterra, you can receive the Fisterrana, a certificate of completion of this epic pilgrimage. Lodgings are beautifully restored farmhouse inns with exceptional regional-delicious Spanish cuisine and wine. All rooms have private baths. The smaller country inns have the serenity of no phones or TV in the rooms. Exploring Courage & Renewal® reflective practices, you deepen your experience through quiet self-reflection, dialogue, and journaling, using the pilgrimage road as daily metaphor.
